

ROMANIAN PLAY-ALONG

WITH RALPH IVERSON & THE ROMANIACS

Musicians are invited to an unusual and delightful day of playing in an impromptu Romanian Orchestra with Ralph Iverson. Ralph Iverson has been playing International Folk Dance music since 1985, and has been a regular at the East Coast Balkan Music & Workshops. His enthusiasm for Balkan dance music, including a special interest in Romanian music, is contagious. Join us in creating the “big sound” of many instruments playing this beautiful music.

Open to intermediate to advanced musicians who play any bowed, reed, or woodwind instrument or cimbalom. Sheet music and dinner provided with space for informal dancing on the fringes after dinner.
